

ATTER Open Conference

3rd July 2023, Maison des Associations, Rennes

Programme

9h00	Welcome and coffee
9h30	Conference opening by Ludovic Brossard (city councillor in charge of sustainable food and urban agriculture, Ville de Rennes) ; Maud Desmas, Maison de la Consommation et de l'Environnement de Rennes ; Marc Tchamitchian, deputy director INRAE-ACT division (Action and Transitions)  Introduction : Spirit and principles of the ATTER network Claire Lamine ; Danièle Magda, INRAE, coordinators of ATTER project
10h00	Session 1 – Territorial food systems trajectories  The session aims at generating mirror effects between case studies from different countries, sharing the interest of our trajectory approach, and discussing the first elements of comparative analysis produced in ATTER, while allowing participants to position their own territory (or those they know).  Plenary presentation of the approach and its application in the case of Rennes Gilles Maréchal ; Doriane Guennoc, Terralim  Group discussion by pairs of French/foreign ATTER cases  <table><tr><td>Groups</td><td>Facilitators</td></tr><tr><td>Rennes / Coventry (UK) (in English)</td><td>Doriane Guennoc, Terralim ; Julia Wright, Coventry University</td></tr><tr><td>Southern Ardèche / Serra Fluminense (Brazil)</td><td>Claire Lamine, INRAE ; Claudia Schmitt, Federal Rural University of Rio de Janeiro</td></tr><tr><td>Western Vosges / Alto Salento (Italy)</td><td>Fabienne Barataud, INRAE ; Noureddin Driouech, CIHEAM-IAMB</td></tr><tr><td>Rennes / Porto Alegre (Brazil)</td><td>Gilles Maréchal, Terralim ; Sergio Schneider, Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul</td></tr></table>	Groups	Facilitators	Rennes / Coventry (UK) (in English)	Doriane Guennoc, Terralim ; Julia Wright, Coventry University	Southern Ardèche / Serra Fluminense (Brazil)	Claire Lamine, INRAE ; Claudia Schmitt, Federal Rural University of Rio de Janeiro	Western Vosges / Alto Salento (Italy)	Fabienne Barataud, INRAE ; Noureddin Driouech, CIHEAM-IAMB	Rennes / Porto Alegre (Brazil)	Gilles Maréchal, Terralim ; Sergio Schneider, Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul
Groups	Facilitators
Rennes / Coventry (UK) (in English)	Doriane Guennoc, Terralim ; Julia Wright, Coventry University
Southern Ardèche / Serra Fluminense (Brazil)	Claire Lamine, INRAE ; Claudia Schmitt, Federal Rural University of Rio de Janeiro
Western Vosges / Alto Salento (Italy)	Fabienne Barataud, INRAE ; Noureddin Driouech, CIHEAM-IAMB
Rennes / Porto Alegre (Brazil)	Gilles Maréchal, Terralim ; Sergio Schneider, Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul
12h15	Lunch cocktail
13h15	Flash presentations of books and reports related to food transitions
13h30	After-lunch short talk – Michael Bell, University of Wisconsin-Madison
13h35	Session 2 – Mobilisation of local actors for food democracy  The session aims at sharing, from ATTER cases, experiences of approaches and arenas of debate favouring the participation of actors in their diversity, and debating around the way in which they could respond to the challenges of a fair and inclusive agroecological transition. Facilitator : Jocelyn Parot, Urgenci  Innovative approaches to mobilising stakeholders in ATTER territories Barbara Van Dyck, Coventry University  Lessons learnt from the diversity of local food councils around the world for food democracy Karine Nunes, Natural Regional Parc of Monts d'Ardèche ; Sibylle Dirren, FIAN International  Discussion : Jérôme Dehondt, farmer, international network Urgenci and Miramap
15h00	Session 3 – Public policies for inclusive agroecological transitions  The session aims at discussing the lessons learnt from putting into perspective the respective choices of public agricultural and food policies in the 5 ATTER countries, and the way in which these policies support agroecological transitions at the scale of territorial food systems. Facilitator : Danièle Magda, INRAE  National policies favourable to agroecological transitions at the territorial level in our 5 countries (France, Brazil, Italy, UK, USA) Paulo Niederle, Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul ; Katie Horner, University of Vermont  Italian biodistricts and French PAT (territorial food projects): two different institutionalisation trajectories Fabienne Barataud, INRAE  Discussion : Ludovic Brossard (city councillor in charge of sustainable food and urban agriculture, Ville de Rennes)
16h30	Summary/Conclusion by Laurence Maillart-Méhaiguerie, President of the French National Food Council (CNA) and Member of the French Parliament
17h00	End of conference

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 101007755